

Biography (100 words)

Hailing from Dublin, Lavery emerges as an electrifying 8-piece collective, igniting stages with their debut EP, "JADE GARDEN." Since their establishment in 2023, this powerhouse ensemble, comprising sought-after musicians from diverse backgrounds, weaves a sonic tapestry of Jazz Fusion and Neo-Soul. With roots in esteemed music colleges like BIMM and DCU's Jazz Program, their cultural blend infuses technical prowess into every note. From prestigious Irish venues to international stages, including upcoming UK performances, Lavery's immersive live shows redefine musical boundaries. Fronted by the mesmerizing Anelise Furkin, their sound is a fusion of jazz, neo-soul, and samba, with a punchy mature style. As they aptly declare, Lavery is a collective where every performance is unique, promising to simmer with joyous outbursts. With their EP release on May 25th, 2024, Lavery sets course to etch an enduring legacy in the evolving Irish jazz landscape.
