

Media Quotes

"The Mist, this infectious song needs to be ideally listened to whilst sipping on a nice brew!! It's a fine blend fusing soulful vocal tones stirred with a warm smooth jazzy vibe. I'm chilling for sure !!

Thanks to the band Lavery 🎵"

Tom Cole Jr, Sunshine 106.8, Ireland

"Highlights [of Lavery's performance] include the incredibly lush tune 'What I Want,' which tells a tale of love and losing oneself in love. The track starts off with groovy, mesmeric instrumentation that seamlessly smooths into a jazzy guitar solo that causes a stir before closing, "I want something real, someone I can be myself still."

Caroline Kelly – Hot Press Magazine, Ireland

"Lavery expertly plays jazzy, psychedelic soul that you hear as if through a fine Irish mist."

John Shand, The Sydney Morning Herald, Australia

"Spacey production as well as some interesting and unexpected chord changes make for an engaging tune"

Charles Husson, Hawaiian Public Radio, USA

"Lavery seems a gentle, ethereal, modern group with singing that gives a good glide to "The Mist's" unusual melody. The music takes interesting turns for a rewarding, tuneful trip."

Biz Bisard (Jazz Music Director ), WNMC 90.7 FM, USA

"Lavery's 'The Mist' is tasteful jazz fusion led by Anelise Furkin's sultry lead vocal."

Jim Motavalli, WPKN 89.5 FM, USA

Lavery

Articles & Interviews

The Jim Motavalli show at WPKN (89.5 FM, USA)

Radio interview

The National Gallery concert for John Lavery by the Businesspost.ie

Written piece by Sara Keating

Live Report: Night Five of The Next Big Thing Festival with Nancy Kate,
Lavery and Ethan Hollan

Hot Press Magazine - Ireland. Written piece by Caroline Kelly

Lavery